

MDT 2024-25 SINGLE COURSE IN GLOBAL CORPORATE TAXATION AND THE DIGITAL ECONOMY

Key features

Taught in English, this course is one of the modules in the one-year Specialized Master program in tax law offered by Bocconi. It is targeted in particular towards international students, as a single course (micro-credential: 8 credits). Attendance to the course will imply a stay in Milan from 6 MAY TO 6 JUNE 2025.

Why Choose Global Corporate Taxation and the Digital Economy

1. Compact: It summarizes key concepts of global taxation in an intensive four-week period, which also allows for personal study.
2. Diversified: It caters to a diversified range of professionals in legal and business advisory services who need to master corporate tax concepts, open to both Specialized Master students and international students who want to learn more about the topic.
3. Glocal: It offers an intertwined educational path that brings the local legal/tax background of individual participants into a common pool of global operative tools.
4. Digital: It offers an introduction the interconnection of global corporate taxation with the digital economy.
5. Rigorous: The program's prestigious Faculty – with experience at top institutions around the world – are committed to academic excellence

Content

- Tax treaties
- Basic global corporate taxation
- EU corporate taxation
- Tax aspects of transfer pricing
- Global tax strategies
- BEPS and the global minimum tax
- Tax risk control framework
- Exchange of tax information
- Big data, information and AI

Knowledge and Understanding

At the end of the course, students will understand the relationships between tax strategies and the competitive context and acquire corporate tax tools and techniques in international contexts.

Exam

Final written exam (multiple choice). In order to earn 8 credits (ECTS), participants are required to attain at least an 80% attendance rate and pass the exam.

Employment Options

Additional speaker events are organized to complement the course program, which facilitate interaction with firms in their recruiting processes.

Selection and Admission

Applicants must be graduating students or graduates of a first-level degree from a non-Italian university (Bachelor degree) in any discipline. Applicants may be enrolled in a second-level degree program or already employed. Required fluency in English: B2 (upper intermediate) level of competence to be demonstrated by 23 April 2025.

Applications must be submitted between 6 November 2024 and 27 January 2025.

Results will be communicated by 14 February 2025. Details about the selection procedure are available at:

www.unibocconi.it/mdt.

Applicants can apply through the ad hoc online procedure, that requires payment of a €200 application fee:

www.unibocconi.it/ammissionimaster

Costs

The cost of the course is €1800. After admission, applicants must follow the payment procedure which is explained in detail on the website www.unibocconi.it/finanziamentimaster

