

21 NOVEMBER 2024
6:00-7:30 pm
Bocconi University
Room N02
Piazza Sraffa13

Public debt. How it works, how to reduce it

Public debt has crucial economic consequences. With a focus on Italy in the European context, we will discuss the origins of public debt, its consequences for citizens and the economy, the future perspectives and the false myths about government debt.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED.

REGISTRATION FORM
to participate in person.

Chair

Paola Profeta Dean for Diversity, Inclusion and Sustainability, Bocconi University

Presentation

Giorgio Di Giorgio Professor of Monetary Theory and Policy and Director of CASMEF, LUISS Guido Carli

Round Table

Sylvie Goulard Vice President, IEP@BU

Daniel Gros Director, IEP@BU

Andrea Sironi President, Bocconi University

Q&A

moderated by

Stefano Feltri Communication Advisor, IEP@BU

Università Bocconi

IEP@BU
Institute for European Policymaking