TEACHING AWARDS 2022-2023

Prof. Paolo Pinotti – Dean of the Faculty

Università
Bocconi
MILANO

July 2024

Main Goals

- Highlight the Bocconi aim to excel in teaching, also in line with the Strategic Plan
- Reward - on a yearly basis - faculty members with an outstanding teaching performance
- Sustain and promote innovation in teaching and encourage greater awareness and dissemination of new educational methods

Who is eligible?

- School Deans propose teaching awards for each school. To be eligible for the Teaching Award, a minimum teaching load is required
- When analyzing and verifying individual rankings in students satisfaction, School Deans also take into account the grade distribution for each individual course and the coherence with the grade distribution suggested by the University

Types of award

- Student Satisfaction
assigned by each School, based standardized and weighted satisfaction scores (by School & by type of course)
- Innovation
assigned by School Deans for distinction in teaching innovation, upon proposals from Directors of Department
- Non-permanent Faculty award for student satisfaction
