Article 3

Applications

Applications, addressed to the University Rector must be sent electronically using an electronic form which can be found at "www.unibocconi.eu/recruitingseior", by 24.00 of 31st May 2016 (Italian Time).

The following documents must be attached to the electronic application:

- a. a scientific curriculum (including the list of titles and publications) in pdf format;
- b. cover letter / statement of interest in .pdf format;

Article 4 Selection Procedure

In order to carry out the selection, the Department uses the Human Resources Committee, commissioned by the Rector and chaired by the Vice-Rector for Human Resources.

Deserving candidates will be invited to send their best and most representative publications, and will be invited to the University to carry out a series of interviews in the Department and to give a seminar based on their research (fly out).

The Human Resources Committee formulates a judgment for each candidate, making a list of suitable candidates who will receive a formal offer from the Rector which will subsequently be submitted for approval by the Faculty Council and Executive Committee. The Council must approve the academic title (level), amount of teaching required, level of scientific research required and salary details which cannot be less than the amount dictated by the Ministerial tables. The offer must also include the deadline by which the candidate must communicate his acceptance of the offer.

If the offer letter is accepted, the University sends the evaluation dossier to the Faculty Council and later the Executive Committee for a decision about the Direct Call. In particular the Faculty Council must be favorably voted for by a majority of Full professors.

Proposals for Direct Calls of Italians or foreigners carrying out research or teaching abroad at a university level will be subject to clearance by the Ministry, having heard the CUN committee, according to art. 1, paragraph 9 of the Law 230/2005.

Article 5 Definition of the Relationship

The following elements will be subject to negotiation between the university administration and the winning candidate, according to the preceding articles:

- a) the economic conditions, within the limits imposed by the University Board; in any case the economic conditions cannot be less than the Ministerial tables dictated for Full Professors;
- b) the teaching and research obligations according to the supplemental agreements for each category current in force in Bocconi and presented to the candidates;
- c) company benefits within the parameters fixed by the University Board.

Full professors will be subscribed to the obligatory national insurance fund INPS (ex INPDAP).

The gross salary will be paid, net of the legal deductions based on the applicable Italian laws, in 12 monthly post-dated payments, plus an extra 13th payment, in addition to the share of employee severance pay, which will be paid to the social security institution.
